

Privacy Policy

1. Introduction

This Privacy Policy sets out the rules of personal data processing and protection and the manner and rules of use of cookies on the Website.

2. Definitions

Controller - personal data controller (and also the operator of the Website) which is:

Elkomtel sp. z o.o.

with a registered office at

Smoleńska 83/98, 03-528 Warsaw, Poland

Website - a website at the address:

www.smartinnovationmanagement.com

User - a natural person using the Website.

2. Cookies

2.1 Cookies constitute computer data, in particular small text files, which are stored in the User's end device and are intended to use the Website. Cookies usually contain the name of the website they originate from, the period of their storage in the end device and a unique number. Cookies on the Website help in proper functioning of the service and in gathering data for statistical purposes and for mechanisms providing general knowledge about how the Users use the Website. Cookies are also used by external services to which the Website refers. For instance, displaying or presenting an interactive localization map.

2.2 The blocking or a change of the scope of cookies use may be done by each User directly in the Internet browser he/she uses. If no change in the settings are made, this is treated as acceptance of cookies.

2.3 The entity which places cookies in the User's end device is the operator of the Website. Cookies may also be placed and used by partners providing multimedia or external scripts (e.g. providing for correct video display or presentation of a localization map).

3. Personal data

3.1 The data subject has a right to access the contents of his/her personal data and a right to correct, remove them, limit the scope of their processing, a right to transfer the data, a right to submit an objection, a right to withdraw his/her consent at any time, without any impact on the right to processing which has been done on the basis of such consent before such consent is withdrawn.

3.2 In the event of determination that personal data processing breaches the provisions of GDPR, the User who is such data subject has a right to lodge a complaint to the President of the Personal Data Protection Office.

3.3 The settings of external scripts, such as statistics (including Google Analytics), were modified in order to limit, to the minimum possible extent, the risk of a possibility of collecting any additional personal data (e.g. by means of anonymization of IP numbers).

4. Final provisions

4.1 This Privacy Policy shall come into force on 24 May 2019.

4.2 The Controller reserves the right to amend this Privacy Policy due to important reasons, in particular in the event of a necessity of adjustment of this Privacy Policy to the provisions of law or decisions and judgements of courts or public authority bodies, improvement of the User service or changes resulting from other situations which require such amendment to this document.

4.3 An amendment to this Privacy Policy shall not affect the personal data processing before the effective date of such amendment.

4.4 Any inquiries concerning personal data processing should be addressed to the Controller.
